

BELLEVILLE POST

BLOOMFIELD, NJ
WEEKLY 12,000

JUN 13 1991

NEW JERSEY CLIPPING SERVICE

4456

AC

Wingfield appears in Pushcart play

Jeffrey L. Wingfield, a resident of Montclair, formerly of Orange, will appear in Pushcart Players' "Stone Soup and Other Stories" in schools and performing arts centers throughout New Jersey during the 1991-92 season. 7100

Wingfield is a graduate of the National Broadcasting School and Montclair State College. He has performed in a variety of plays, including "Antigone," "Master Harold and the Boys," "The Good Woman of Setzuan," "Fortunes End," and "Hot L. Baltimore." Wingfield has studied acting with Olympia Dukakis and performed in several shows for Theaterfest and Summerfun, but "Stone Soup and

Jeffrey Wingfield

Pushcart Players is a professional theater ensemble for young and family audiences. . .

"Other Stories" is his first Pushcart play. This musical, which is part of Pushcart's "Story Theater" Series, is drawn from international classics and appropriate for children pre-K through fourth grade.

Pushcart Players is a professional theater ensemble for young and family audiences that brings live theater programs to children in schools, community centers and local theaters throughout the Mid-Atlantic region. All Pushcart performances are accompanied by a comprehensive study guide for each classroom teacher and an optional discussion period with the cast immediately following the show.

The company also offers a main-stage show, "Three Cheers For America," which is a musical tribute to our nation's multi-faceted ethnic heritage. Both productions are available for the 1991-92 school year. Pushcart programs are made possible through grants by provided by Hoffmann-La Roche, Inc., New Jersey State Council on the Arts/ Department of State, Deluxe Check Printers, Inc., Metropolitan Life Foundation and Mutual Benefit Life. For further information regarding any of Pushcart's programs or to book one of their shows, call 201-857-1115, or write to: Pushcart, 197 Bloomfield Avenue, Verona, 07022. 2